

Jianna Lieberman

While I am supportive of flood mitigation, we have to find a way to complete infrastructure projects without significant impact to fish species, aquatic habitat, wildlife species and habitats. We have damaged the earth enough. I would rather see adaptation around flooding areas vs destruction of habitat. Please do not proceed with this plan in its current form.