

suzanne whittinghill

I am extremely concerned about this project, and urge you to consider alternative measures to resolve the problem. How many times must Washingtonians fight for salmon habitat, while the populations are decimated? And I understand that there are less expensive options as well. Please count me as opposed to the dam proposal. Thank you for allowing a comment period.