

Andrew Cole DDS (Andrew Cole)

This project appears to carefully balance the needs of flood control and also conserving the natural environment. Flooding robs this community of long term wealth by destroying property and livelihoods. It is time to move forward with this project and protect the people in the Chehalis River Basin.