

Frank Jahn

I am opposed to the Chehalis River Basin Flood Damage Reduction Project. A new dam is not the answer. A new dam would harm salmon and steelhead runs, hurt our fishing and hunting economies, and siphon funding from bigger-picture solutions. There are modern, proven flood solutions that can protect people, the land, and salmon. Please reconsider this costly, destructive solution - there are better options.

Sincerely,

Frank Jahn