

Elaine Hickman

We cannot afford to spend $2 billion to build a dam, which is becoming an obsolete concept, to provide flood control. As necessary as addressing the need for addressing flooding is, the solution needs to also preserve fish habitat and comply with Tribal treaty rights.