

christina burress

Dear Department of Ecology, The current Chehalis River Basin Flood Damage Reduction Project draft will have long term disasterous effects to the river basin and all her inhabitants including salmon, steelhead, fishing economies, and residents in surrounding areas who depend on a healthy environment. Building a dam is not the answer!