

JEFFREY WONG

I have read the Chehalis River Basin Flood Damage Reduction Project Revised Draft Environmental Impact Statement.

I oppose the project based on its adverse effects on fish and wildlife, its impact on water and land resources as well as Native American assets. I'm not convinced that the cost of the project falls in line with the benefits. Nor do I feel the benefits outweigh the negative effects of the project during construction and after completion.