

Hazel Lyon

This proposed dam will harm many essential environmental ecosystems. Chehalis River salmon are part of the Washington Coast stock which is listed as a priority Chinook stock for Southern Resident orcas. Resident orcas need as much support as we can give them in order for them to grow in numbers. There are too many alternatives to this dam that need to be considered. I am OPPOSED to the proposed dam. Thank you.