

Karen Young

I am asking that the mega dam on the headwaters of the Chehalis River not be approved. The impact on salmon spawning and damage to that ecosystem would be devastating. I live above the Pilchuck River and am relieved to see the numbers of salmon still spawning every year. Please consider alternatives for flooding control and preserve this river's health.