

Mira Wiegmann

Better land management such as the restoration of wetlands and the reintroduction of beavers to improve groundwater retention is a better answer to area flooding than dam building. Please prioritize other means to reduce runoff and increase water retention during periods of heavy rain.