

Fred Ramsey

I'm in support of a non-dam solution for the flood prone Chehalis River Basin.

We have many examples where the floodplain/watershed restoration has been a far better solution than a built dam structure.

Dams encourage the continuing unsustainable living and development in flood prone areas and add the cost of destroying the basic river ecosystem and values.