

JL Angell

Please put this proposal to rest, and instead focus on proven solutions that will keep communities up and down the river safe, and help return the fish runs to their historical health. All west coast salmon survival is interrelated and you must do your part so sustainability returns.