

Anonymous Anonymous

I would follow the lead of the Chehalis Tribe and Quinalt Nation for aquatic species enhancement and restoration, along with the other extant, localized mechanisms in the no-action alternatives, given the irrevocable damage to salmonid spawning habitat the current proposal would inflict.