

Russell Graham

We know dams have caused significant damage to Salmon populations, "despite" huge expenditures and many creative efforts to mitigate the damage, right?

We also, now know dam removal can readily restore Salmon populations.

The proposed Dam "must" include proven measures for Salmon protection! If that is not doable the project should be stopped.

Kindly,
Russ Graham