

L Abramson

The Chehalis Basin needs proven flood solutions--not a poorly planned, gigantic $2 billion dam on the Chehalis River. The latest proposal could cost close to $2 billion—with no good plan to pay for it. It's 2026. We all know that dams aren't the answer—not when we have modern, proven flood solutions that can protect people, the land, and salmon.