

Robert Richards

As a lifelong Washington resident, I've enjoyed visiting all parts of this beautiful state, including multiple trips to the Chehalis River Basin. This dam project causes irreversible damage to salmon, wildlife, water quality, and Tribal treaty-protected resources while offering only limited flood-reduction benefits. Please consider alternate proposals for flood reduction that do not cause widespread and irreversible harm.