

Padmini Harchandrai

I oppose the formation of a dam on the Chehalis river. I understand this is to help protect communities downstream from flooding, and perhaps there might be ways to protect them without impacting the salmon that call the Chehalis river home. As one of the last intact waterways for young salmon to grow up in, emphasis should be made to protect the waterway and keep it in as natural form a possible. Thank you.