

Virginia Davis

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the proposal to build a dam on the Chehalis River. Advocates and experts throughout the region are concerned about this project for its huge environmental and financial costs.

The Department of Ecology should put cancel this proposal and instead, focus on proven solutions that will keep communities up and down the river safe, and help return the fish runs to their historical health.