

BONNIE GRETZ

There are many options that are viable to deal with the periodic flooding in this area. Building another dam, when all indices show that taking dams down is a much better way to work WITH natural processes, is NOT the right way to go.