

Bradshaw Willis

Dams are going to ruin the environmental progress that has been made in the Chehalis basin. There are other scientifically proven responses to flood control that made fewer impacts on salmon runs and still protect people and property. A dam should not be the end all, be all solution