

Ariel Birks

I oppose this dam. Other mitigation strategies should be used including raising houses that currently exist and avoiding building in areas that have been known to flood for generations and generations. What about some smart work with beavers? The water needs to slow down. Thicker forests, beaver construction--mitigation strategies to work with beavers so that farm land is protected. Give the contract to the beavers!