

Matthew Beamont

This project has a significant likelihood of degrading critical habitat and causing significant and avoidable harm to salmon, steelhead and other aquatic species already threatened by overfishing, global and regional environment changes, and the destruction of natural habitat. I strongly urge you to reconsider this project.

Respectfully,

A concerned citizen