

Linda Leben

I am very concerned about the ecological impacts of this project on salmon runs during construction, potential for mudslides downstream, and on Tribal land. This region would be better served by salmon restoration projects.