

Kristen Meston

I oppose the building of this dam on the Chehalis River. As we attempt to restore salmon populations to save our ever-dwindling population of orcas, this dam does the opposite. There are other options for protecting communities from flooding and those should be enacted instead. This dam would have too high of an environmental cost.