

Ryan Anonymous

This dam is a terrible idea. It will have immense impact on the native species in this area, particularly the salmon. Building this dam will not provide enough return on investment to offset the environmental damage it will cause and the likely loss of biodiversity. Our job is to be good stewards of our world and building this dam will be another way we've failed. Don't build this dam! It's a waste and will be a disaster!