

Amy H

Hi all, I am opposed to the flood mitigation plans put forward. How about we build outside flood plains and use flood plains for recreation, historical and habitat values. The I-5 corridor commerce can figure out an environmentally safe solution to their flooding problems and agriculture/ranchers can implement new practices to better mitigate flooding. Our factory forests can help mitigate flooding as well. There are other and better solutions.