

Beth Levin

This proposed mega-dam could now cost close to $2 billion—with no good plan to pay for it. It would harm salmon and steelhead runs, hurt our fishing and hunting economies, and siphon funding from bigger-picture solutions. We can do better.