

Ana Mujica

The creation of this dam will adversely affect the population of steelhead trout and salmon populations. Which alone with global warming will affect the orca population. Many communities depend on orca focused tourism for their income and community survival. Building this dam will create more problems than effective solutions for all the species that depend on the Chehallis River, including humans. Please stop the project to build this dam.

Thank you.
Ana Mujica