

Thomas Semple

I say to reject this dam proposal. Throughout the Pacific coast dams are being removed to save salmon on the verge of extinction. Another dam added will just make it more difficult to continue the environmental work of restoration in the future.