

K C

Our Southern Resident orcas rely on Chinook salmon as a vital food source for survival. The proposed Chehalis dam would significantly reduce Chinook salmon habitat and cause harm to active fish runs. Interrupting this natural cycle will cause irreversible damage to our beloved Southern Resident orca population. I oppose building a dam on Chehalis River.