

Chad Evans

Put this proposal to rest, and instead focus on proven solutions that will keep communities up and down the river safe, and help return the fish runs to their historical health. We don't need more dams.