

Ellen Williams

I strongly object to this dam project. I trust the environmental review that states plainly that fish and wildlife habitat will be severely impacted.. that Tribes object is reason enough. Solving flooding with a dam is going backward from respecting and encouraging a landscape that slows down water flow and provided fish habitat.