

Jennifer Drury

I am strongly opposed to the Chehalis River Dam project as it would have a terrible impact on salmon and the ecology of the area. The State and Tribes have been working hard and spending millions of dollars to repair salmon habits. And building this dam would cost billions. This is one of the largest undammed rivers on the West Coast and one of the few that has largely wild and not hatchery salmon. Please seek other solutions to the issues of flooding.