

Susana Gladwin

So few rivers have never been damed. We now know the price we pay not in just the money cost but in fish killed, warm waters in the reservoir behind it, and sedimentation behind it. Because of these costs there is a push to remove existing dams.

Please leave the Chehalis as it is.

Thank you for reading this,
Susana Gladwin