

Seth Cool

I write to oppose the proposal. Our state already has too many dams, and the effects of these days has been devastating to anadromous fish and riparian habitat. These dams are also difficult and expensive to remove later when the harmful impacts become apparent. In addition, the damn seems terribly expensive. The Local Actions Non-Dam Alternative provides a solution to solve the issues without an impactful dam.