

Eric Jones

I am submitting a comment out of concern for the proposed flood retention facility and its potentially devastating effect on salmon populations. Other solutions are possible which do not have such a detrimental effect on wildlife. I urge the state to pursue alternate options.