

Miriam Hemphill

Salmon are important sources of food for wildlife and a living for Native Americans! It is important to have for the future. I know the current administration wants to destroy fisheries. Mother Nature needs to be left to those who can manage things properly!!!!