

Erin Potts

The Southern Resident orcas have suffered enough for human gain. We cannot install another dam that limits their access to chinook salmon. I respectfully request that you investigate other avenues that will not harm endangered orcas.