

Jen Gorall

I strongly oppose the proposed dam project on the Chehalis river. This would permanently damage salmon and steelhead populations which are crucial to the survival of the Southern Resident orcas. An alternate solution must be utilized that would have minimal impact on the environment and marine life.