

Nina French

NO MORE DAMS. We do not need dams; we need more solar and wind. Dams are damaging to fish and wildlife that rely on the river for spawning, access to fish, and fresh water. This is nonsensical and should be immediately rejected and never happen, not now, not in the future. There are clear, clean, and free renewables.