

Laura Rotegard

NO to a dam on the Chehalis River. Free flowing river is critical to salmon habitat critical to endangered southern resident endangered orcas. We have so many other ways to create energy that does not damage the very thing we celebrate and protect in the PNW- our Puget Sound ecosystem of incredible life.