

Marian Roh

Well, after hearing about this grand new plan (sarcasm) I'm thinking you can no longer call yourselves the Department of Ecology. Elsewhere the UAS (hardly at the forefront of environmental movements in general) is busy pulling dams down. Rivers need to run. I oppose any new dam project, and especially this one on the Chehalis River.