

Teresa DeLorenzo

Damming the Chehalis would have catastrophic effects on water quality and fish and wildlife habitat. We can't afford to lose this incredibly healthy and diverse habitat. And the science shows that damming the Chehalis would not create beneficial flood control. Managing the floodplain is a better alternative. Please abandon this ineffective and expensive project.