

Anonymous Anonymous

Comment:

A dam won't stop major flooding long- term, but it will destroy irreplaceable habitat. The DEIS clearly lays out the reality that this dam will have catastrophic impacts. This river carries cultural, ecological, and spiritual importance that a dam would violate. Restoring floodplains, strengthening local infrastructure, and investing in resilience are smarter, safer, science-backed options.