

RANDY LEDUC

I am in full support of the Flow Through Water Retention Project proposed on the Upper Chehalis River. The river flows uninterrupted except during a major flooding event which would have been a few times in the last 10 years and not effected the river the other time.