

Jon-Paul Bowles

Please do not move this project forward. We are already losing salmon populations and habitat. We can't afford to lose more habitat and water quality. I am an outdoor enthusiast and fisherman. This project would keep me and many others from playing and fishing on the Chehalis. It also affects Oregon and Washington salmon runs since this is a tributary of the Columbia - the lower 48s last best salmon population.