

Kelly Wisniewski

I am opposed to this completely. This will affect the natural wildlife that is critical for the survival of many species like the salmon and especially the southern resident killer whale population. We need to protect their natural habitat and restore it instead of putting our own human agenda ahead of them. So I oppose this idea.