

Lisa Siegfried

Please reconsider this proposal it will have damaging effects to fish runs. In light of climate change and an uncertain future for our fish runs we need to conserve and put this as a priority for future generations. We need to look into other sustainable ways to move forward to support human growth instead of impacting nature and our fish that are already facing all kinds of human obstacles.