

Anonymous Anonymous

I am concerned about the proposed FRE dam on the Upper Chehalis River. Based on the DEIS, it would cause disastrous harm to endangered native salmon & steelhead.

I am also concerned about the scale & cost as well as safety & geotechnical risk. The benefits of this dam are very limited compared to the permanent damage it would do.

There are better solutions to flood reduction that already exist (Local Actions Non-Dam Alternative).

Thank you,
C.G.