

Megan Muir

This seems like a step backwards. Preserving fish runs of all types, and salmon in particular, is critical to our state's economy and ecology. Commercial fisheries, sport fisheries, the whale-related economy all depend on healthy fish runs. Decreasing the natural habitat and functioning ecosystem is short sighted and will only damage Washington state overall. Please do not proceed with this project.